

Pilgel

Creative AI Studio & E-commerce Frontend

License & Attribution

This document outlines the licensing terms for the Pilgel website, its original design elements, and the third-party resources used in its construction.

1. Original Content

The layout, custom code, component structure, and original design compositions of this website are the property of the site owner. All rights reserved © 2026, unless otherwise noted below.

2. Typography

This project uses Playfair Display and Inter, both distributed via Google Fonts under the SIL Open Font License, version 1.1. These fonts are free for personal and commercial use, modification, and redistribution under the terms of the OFL.

3. Photography

Product and editorial photography is sourced dynamically via the Unsplash API and used under the Unsplash License, which permits free use for commercial and non-commercial purposes without requiring permission or attribution, though attribution to original photographers is appreciated where feasible.

4. Icons

Interface and technology icons are provided by the react-icons library, which aggregates several icon sets distributed under the MIT License.

5. Third-Party Libraries

| Library      | Purpose             | License                      |
|--------------|---------------------|------------------------------|
| React        | UI framework        | MIT                          |
| React Router | Client-side routing | MIT                          |
| Tailwind CSS | Styling             | MIT                          |
| GSAP         | Scroll animations   | Standard 'No Charge' License |
| Lenis        | Smooth scrolling    | MIT                          |

|        |           |     |
|--------|-----------|-----|
| Swiper | Carousels | MIT |
|--------|-----------|-----|

This project is provided for educational and portfolio purposes.